With signature programs that highlight overall health and wellness (physical, mental, and nutritional), SBGB is celebrating its next 30 years with new interactive and inspirational programs that aim to create a holistic health experience for South and Central Texas youth alongside grant making that inspires safe spaces to play, learn and grow.

Our signature program, Spurs Youth Basketball League, has impacted:

- 400,000 families
- 50,000 coaches
- 65 sites

We are now expanding into soccer and launching the San Antonio Futbol Club (SAFC) Micro League.

We aim to create an equal playing field for youth of all backgrounds to join together in fighting for a common goal; holistic health and confidence to pursue their goals. Curriculum will also expand to include sports nutrition and mental wellness through a virtual portal experience.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

PLAYOFF CALIBER: San Antonio clinched a playoff berth for the 22nd consecutive season, the longest active streak in the NBA, the second-longest being Golden State and Houston with 7. The Silver and Black are now tied for first all-time in NBA history for consecutive playoff appearances. The Spurs have now gone to the Playoffs 39 times in the 43 seasons they have been in the NBA since 1976, the most a team has gone to the Playoffs in that time span. The Spurs own the longest active streak of playoff appearances across all four major U.S. sports. Gregg Popovich now has the record for longest streak of postseason appearances by a head coach in NBA history.

Head Coach	Playoff Streak	Years
Phil Jackson	20	1990-2011
Pat Riley	19	1982-2001

JUST KEEP WINNING: Over the last 22 years, the Spurs have recorded 22-straight winning seasons since Tim Duncan joined in the team in 1997 and have compiled the second-highest winning percentage of any team in the four major professional sports during that time period. In that span, the Spurs have won five NBA championships and earned 12 division titles:

HISTORY REPEATING: The Spurs are the only franchise in the league with a historical winning record against every team in the NBA.

A COACH TO COUNT ON: After finishing his 23rd season at the helm of the San Antonio Spurs in 2018-19, Gregg Popovich is the longest tenured coach with the same team in all four major professional sports. The three-time NBA Coach of the Year also holds the second-best winning percentage of all-time in all 4 major sports, trailing only New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

POP REACHES THE PINNACLE: Gregg Popovich has racked up 1,415 total wins (regular season + playoffs) over the course of his 23 seasons as head coach of the San Antonio Spurs, which makes him the winningest coach in NBA history.

Coach	Reg W	Post W	Total W
Gregg Popovich	1,245	170	1,415

POP MOVING UP: With San Antonio's 111-86 win over the Phoenix Suns on 12/11/18, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich collected his 1,211th win to pass Pat Riley for fourth place on the NBA all-time wins list. On 1/10/19 vs. Oklahoma City, the Spurs beat the Thunder 154-147 (2OT) to move Popovich into third on the NBA's all-time list. He holds the most wins among all active NBA coaches. Here is a look at where he stands in history:

Coach	All-Time Wins
1. Don Nelson	1,335
2. Lenny Wilkens	1,332
3. Gregg Popovich	1,245
4. Jerry Sloan	1,221
5. Pat Riley	1,210

POP'S PRESENCE ON THE ROAD: With the Spurs win on 1/26/19 over New Orleans, Coach Popovich became the winningest coach on the road in NBA history with road win No. 521, surpassing Pat Riley. He currently is 527-381 on the road in his career. Coach Popovich is just the third coach in NBA history to reach 500 road wins and the fastest to ever do so (835 games).

POP AND THE 'BIG 3': Gregg Popovich currently stands as a part of the top three player-coach duos for postseason wins in NBA history. Over his 23 years as the head coach of the San Antonio Spurs, Popovich has earned 170 wins in the NBA Playoffs. Tim Duncan and Gregg Popovich lead the way with 157 postseason wins together, while the other members of the Silver and Black's 'Big 3' are not far behind, as Pop-Parker totaled 137 wins together in the playoffs and Pop-Manu captured 135.

L.A. LANDS ALL-STAR BID: LaMarcus Aldridge earned the nod to head to Charlotte where he competed in his seventh-career NBA All-Star Game, and his third as a Spur, becoming one of only five players in the NBA to be selected in seven of the last eight years, along with Kevin Durant, James Harden, LeBron James and Russell Westbrook. Aldridge was the first Spurs All-Star that didn't play his rookie year in San Antonio since Artis Gilmore in 1986.

ALL-STAR SPURS: The 2019 All-Star Game marked the 21st-consecutive year that the Spurs have had a player selected as an All-Star, which stands as the longest streak of any NBA team since the NBA/ABA merger back in 1976. The Oklahoma City Thunder hold the second-longest streak with 10. The Silver and Black have been represented by at least one player in 40 of the 42 All-Star Games since San Antonio joined the NBA in 1976 – the most of any team in that span. The Lakers are second, represented in 35 of the last 41 games. San Antonio has produced six All-Star starters in George Gervin, Larry Kenon, Alvin Robertson, David Robinson, Tim Duncan and Kawhi Leonard. Gregg Popovich has been selected to coach the Western Conference team four times.

A LEAGUE OF HIS OWN: On 2/2/19, LaMarcus Aldridge hit the 18,000-point milestone for his NBA career, becoming the 72nd player in league history to reach the milestone. He also stands as the only player in the NBA to have racked up 18,000+ points, 7,500+ rebounds and 1,000+ blocks since he entered the league in 2006. He currently ranks No. 64 on the NBA's all-time points list (18,598), No. 72 in rebounds (7,968) and No. 89 in league history for blocked shots (1,024).

STANDOUT SHOOTING: LaMarcus Aldridge shot 51.9 percent from the field in 2018-19, the best single-season field-goal percentage of his 13-year career. He recorded 20+ points while also shooting over 50 percent-or-better from the floor 39 times during the 2018-19 campaign, giving him the fifth-most such games in the NBA this season (Giannis Antetokounmpo - 53, Karl-Anthony Towns - 43, Kevin Durant - 41, Nikola Vucevic - 40).

BALA OFF THE BENCH: Patty Mills scored his 3,273rd career points off the bench on 10/20/18 at Portland, surpassing Malik Rose for the second-most points off the bench in the Silver and Black's history. He currently sits at 4,061 career bench points for the Spurs and trails only Manu Ginobili who contributed 8,278 points off the bench during his illustrious career in San Antonio. Patty Mills is just one of 24 players, and one of only two Spurs, to ever record 4,000+ points off the bench for one team.

Alongside Manu Ginobili and Dell Curry, Mills is just one of three players in NBA history to record 700+ bench three-pointers for one franchise. Ginobili leads the way with 929, Curry sits second with 800 and Mills leads the way among active players at 737.

THE OLD GUY: On 3/20/19, Patty Mills moved past Danny Green into 10th place on the Spurs all-time games played list with his 521st appearance in a Spurs uniform. Mills sits among an elite group of 13 players to have reached the 500 games played mark with the Silver & Black (Tim Duncan, Tony Parker, Manu Ginobili, David Robinson, George Gervin, Sean Elliott, Avery Johnson, Matt Bonner, Bruce Bowen, Patty Mills, Danny Green, Johnny Moore, Malik Rose).

During the Spurs 2018-19 playoff run, Patty Mills also joined the franchise's top 10 in postseason games played when he matched Sean Elliott's 85 games played.

SMOOTH IN TRANSITION: After being acquired by San Antonio in the offseason prior to the 2018-19 campaign, Spurs guard DeMar DeRozan scored 136 points in the opening fives games of the season, giving him the most points by a Spur through his first five games with the team in franchise history.

In just his first season in San Antonio, DeRozan became the first player in franchise history to post season averages of 20.0+ points, 5.0+ rebounds and 5.0+ assists. He recorded season averages of 21.2 points, 6.2 assists and 6.0 boards, leaving him as one of just four players to average 21+ points, 6+ assists and 6+ rebounds during the 2018-19 season (James Harden, LeBron James, Russell Westbrook).

UNSUNG TALENT: Bryn Forbes was thrust into the starting lineup after the Spurs suffered injuries to three members of their backcourt. He led the NBA in 2018-19 in double-digit scoring performances by an undrafted player with 59. His 59 performances in double figures set a new single-season career best for Forbes and tied him with Avery Johnson for the second-most by an undrafted player in team history. Johnson's 61 during the 1994-95 season tops the franchise record book.

Forbes set a number of career-high marks in his third season, including games started (81), points scored (967), field goals made (361), three-pointers made (176), free throws made (69), rebounds (239), assists (175), steals (45) and blocked shots (6). His percentages from the field (.456), three-point line (.426) and charity stripe (.885) all set career-best marks, as well. The 176 three-pointers he connected on him made him just the third player in Spurs history to hit 170+ in a single season. Forbes finished with 282 three-pointers converted through his first three seasons, which are the third-most in franchise history. He also became just the 10th undrafted player in league history to amass 250+ three-pointers in his first three seasons. Starting 81-of-82 games in 2018-19, Forbes joined Avery Bradley and Bruce Bowen as the only undrafted players in Spurs history to start 80+ games in a single season.

BEST IN THE LEAGUE: As a team, San Antonio ranked No. 1 in the NBA in 2018-19 for free-throw percentage (.819), three-point percentage (.392) and fewest turnovers per game (12.1), while finishing second in field-goal percentage (.478) behind the Golden State Warriors. The 81.9 percent mark from the charity stripe marked the best single-season team free-throw percentage in franchise history.

BENCH BARRAGE: Patty Mills, Marco Belinelli and Davis Bertans combined to score 423 three-pointers off the bench this season. All three members of that trio finished inside the top 10 among NBA players for three-pointers off the bench in 2018-19.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER: The Spurs captured a 154-147 win in a double-overtime thriller on 1/10/19, setting a number of records that night. Most notably, Gregg Popovich surpassed Jerry Sloan for third place on the NBA's all-time coaching wins list. As a team, the Spurs shot an NBA record 84.2 percent (16-of-19) from behind the arc, which ranks among the best all time for a single game among teams who converted on at least 10 threes. San Antonio connected on its first 14 three-point attempts to begin the game, which marked the most by a team over the past 20 seasons. Spurs forward LaMarcus Aldridge recorded a career-best 56 points in the game – the third-most points ever scored by a Spurs player and the most ever by a Spur in San Antonio. Aldridge, at age 33, became the second-oldest player in NBA history to put up a 50+ point performance (Kobe Bryant). The 154 total points scored by the Silver and Black were its most in a single game since scoring 161 on 11/7/90. The 301 combined points were the most in an NBA game since 12/7/06 when the Suns and Nets played to double OT.

ELITE COMPANY: On 12/13/18 vs. the Los Angeles Clippers, LaMarcus Aldridge played his 250th career game as a member of the Silver and Black. He is one of just four players in franchise history with 4,500+ points and 2,000+ rebounds through 250 games played with San Antonio (David Robinson, Tim Duncan, Larry Kenon).

RACE TO 1,000: DeMar DeRozan scored his 1,000th point in a Spurs uniform after pouring in 26 points at Philadelphia on 1/23/19. It was his 47th game with the team, making him the fourth-fastest player to reach the 1,000-point threshold in a Spurs uniform (David Robinson - 44, George Gervin - 45, Terry Cummings - 45).

DON'T DOUBT DERRICK: Second-year guard Derrick White scored 36 points in Game 3 of the First Round of the NBA Playoffs vs. Denver, shooting 15-of-21 from the floor and recording 5 rebounds and 5 assists. Only Tim Duncan and Tony Parker have scored more points in a single half during the postseason than White's 26. White was also the first player not named Manu Ginobili to put forth a 30+ point playoff performance since Avery Johnson in 1998.

SECOND-YEAR STANDOUT: Derrick White fared performed well amongst his second-year peers in the 2019 NBA Playoffs, finishing second in total points (106), tied for second in total blocks (5), third in total assists (21), tied for third in total steals (5), fourth in points per game (15.1), and tied for fourth in assists per game (3.0) at the time of the Spurs departure. The four members of the 2017-18 rookie class that finished with more points per game than White were all selected in the top 12 in the NBA Draft (Donovan Mitchell - No. 12, Jayson Tatum - No. 3, Ben Simmons - No. 1), while White was selected at No. 29.

LUCKY NUMBER 7: With San Antonio's Game 1 win over Denver, the Spurs became just the ninth No. 7 seed in NBA history to defeat a No. 2 seed on the road in the opening game of the series. The Spurs also became one of 12 No. 7 seeds to have won at least two of the first four games in a playoff series against a No. 2 seed. The Silver and Black were just the sixth No. 7 seed to force a Game 7 against a No. 2 seed in 34 total series since the NBA went to its current seeding format in 1984.

OCTOBER 10, 1973
In the first game in San Antonio history, the Spurs fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena ... Rich Jones led the Spurs in scoring with 25 points ... the Spurs lost their first four games before claiming their first win on 10/16/73 when they beat the Virginia Squires 116-106.

JANUARY 30, 1974
After a month of fighting, Angelo Drossos pulled off the biggest deal in Spurs history, purchasing George Gervin from the Virginia Squires ... the transaction wasn't a simple one due to legal battles between the Spurs, the Squires and the ABA League Office ... in fact, at one point, the 21-year-old Gervin went into hiding for a week as the three parties battled it out ... in the end Drossos and the Spurs won, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JANUARY 28, 1975
On this date the city of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game ... on the West squad were three Spurs, George Gervin, James Silas and Swen Nater ... but the East team dominated the game, posting a 151-124 win in front of 10,449 in the HemisFair Arena ... the coaches that night were Kevin Loughery and Larry Brown.

OCTOBER 22, 1976
The Spurs made their NBA debut, beating the 76ers 121-118 in Philadelphia ... Billy Paultz paced the Spurs with 27 points ... also making his NBA debut that night was Julius Erving of the Sixers ... later in the week, on 10/27/76, the Spurs played their first NBA game in the HemisFair Arena, beating Phoenix 115-106 behind a 41-point effort by Larry Kenon ... the Spurs finished their first NBA season with a 44-38 record and a trip to the playoffs.

APRIL 9, 1978
George Gervin set an NBA record scoring 33 points in the second quarter as the Spurs fell to New Orleans 153-132 in the final game of the regular season ... earlier in the day David Thompson had scored 73 points and entering the game Gervin knew that he needed to score 58 points to edge out Thompson for the 1978 NBA scoring title ... Gervin came through ... he had 53 at halftime and finished the game with 63 points—despite sitting out the fourth quarter—to claim his first scoring title.

APRIL 15, 1983
Spurs announced their All-Decade Team ... on the squad were George Gervin, Artis Gilmore, Mike Mitchell, James Silas and Mark Olberding ... the Iceman was named the Spurs Player of the Decade ... the same night Artis Gilmore scored his 20,000th career point.

FEBRUARY 28, 1984
The Spurs retired the No. 13 worn by James Silas ... it was the first number ever retired by the Spurs franchise and Silas earned the honor ... in his career he appeared in 618 games, scoring 10,290 points and handing out 2,406 assists ... Silas — who was an original Spur — enjoyed his best season in 1975–76 when he averaged 23.8 points, 5.4 assists and 4.0 rebounds ... his career was cut short by a knee injury that he suffered in November of 1976.

MAY 17, 1987
The Spurs won the NBA Draft Lottery in New York ... Bob Bass was on hand with a lucky Red Chameleon ... the good luck charm worked as the Spurs beat out six other teams and won the number one pick in the 1987 Draft, which they used to select All-Star center David Robinson.

DECEMBER 5, 1987

NOVEMBER 4, 1989
In his first NBA game rookie center David Robinson led the Spurs to a 106-98 win over the Lakers in front of a crowd of 15,868 in the HemisFair Arena ... Robinson didn't miss a beat despite the fact that he had spent the two previous years serving as a Navy ensign, stationed at Kings Bay, GA ... the Admiral finished the game with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

MARCH 26, 1993
On this date a group of 22 investors purchased the franchise from Red McCombs ... the two leaders of the group were Bob Coleman and Robert McDermott ... the original deal was struck on 2/19/93 between the group and McCombs, then a month later the move — with some minor changes — was approved by the NBA League Office.

MAY 20, 1993
The end of an era ... after calling the HemisFair Arena home for 20 years the Spurs played their final game in the Arena falling to the Suns 102-100 in Game 6 of their Western Conference Semifinal series ... in those 20 seasons, the Spurs played 893 regular season and playoff games in the Arena, attracting 9,383,257 fans.

MAY 23, 1995
On this date the NBA announced its 1994-95 Most Valuable Player — Mr. David Robinson ... the Admiral led the Spurs to a 62-20 record — the best mark in the NBA in 1994-95 — and became the first player in San Antonio history to win the award ... Robinson was among league leaders in five categories: scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, steals and field goal percentage.

FEBRUARY 11, 1996
One of the most exciting weekends in San Antonio history was capped with the 46th Annual NBA All-Star Game ... a crowd of 36,037 packed the Alamodome and saw the East defeat the West 129-118 despite solid efforts from Spurs All-Stars David Robinson and Sean Elliott ... the entire 1996 NBA All-Star Weekend was a hit as, for three days, the eyes of the basketball world were focused on the Alamo City.

MAY 6, 1996
In Springfield, Massachusetts, George Gervin was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame ... the honor is one that Gervin deserves ... in his 14-year professional career he scored 26,595 points which is the 12th highest total in history.

MAY 17, 1997
Ten years after winning the 1987 NBA Draft Lottery, the Spurs won the 1997 Lottery and the right to select Wake Forest star Tim Duncan ... winning the lottery was one of the few bright spots for the Spurs during the 1996-97 season ... they limped through the year without David Robinson and others, finishing with a 20-62 mark.

MARCH 20, 1998
On this date the Spurs retired the No. 00 of point guard Johnny Moore ... in his nine seasons with the Spurs, Moore appeared in 519 games, averaging 9.4 points and 7.4 assists per game ... JUNE 25, 1999
An Avery Johnson 18-foot jumper with 47.0 seconds left gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead over the New York Knicks in Madison Square Garden in Game 5 of the 1999 NBA Finals ... neither team scored another point, as the Spurs held on to win the game and capture their first NBA Championship.

JUNE 15, 2003

David Robinson had his No. 50 hoisted into the rafters of the AT&T Center ... Robinson retired as the Spurs all-time NBA leader in games, points, rebounds, steals and blocks ... he finished his career with a pair of NBA Championships (1999 and 2003) and a legacy off the court thanks to the Carver Academy, a school on the East Side of San Antonio created by Robinson.

MARCH 6, 2005
The Spurs retired Sean Elliott's No. 32 ... Elliott, who played 11 years in the Silver and Black, ended his career as the Spurs all-time leader in three-point field goals made (with 563) and attempted (1,485) ... the two-time NBA All-Star helped lead the Spurs to their first NBA Championship in 1999.

JUNE 23, 2005
The Spurs defeated the Pistons in Game 7 of the NBA Finals to capture their third NBA Championship in seven years ... Tim Duncan joined Magic Johnson, Michael Jordan and Shaquille O'Neal as the only players to capture three Finals MVP awards ... Duncan finished with 25 points and 11 rebounds to propel the Spurs to a 81-74 victory.

JUNE 14, 2007

2012-13 SEASON
The San Antonio Spurs celebrated their 40th anniversary throughout the 2012-13 season ... in the summer of 1973 a group of local investors leased the Dallas Chaparrals and relocated the team to San Antonio ... midway through their first season in the Alamo City the group purchased the team outright, and the Spurs have been a mainstay in San Antonio culture ever since ... the Silver and Black played their first three seasons in the ABA before joining the NBA in the summer 1976, along with the Nets, Nuggets and Pacers ... since the team moved to San Antonio, 318 players have suited up for the Spurs ranging from NBA Hall of Famers George "Iceman" Gervin and David Robinson to Steve Bardo who did not score in one minute of action in his only game with the team.

MARCH 22, 2013

THE STARS

CLIFF HAGAN

FIRST PLAYER-COACH

Player-Coach Cliff Hagan was a big reason for the Chaparrals early success … he was a five-time All-Star with the St. Louis Hawks prior to arriving in Dallas … his physical style was perfect for the ABA and in his first season of 1967-68, Hagan averaged 18.2 points per game, leading to another All-Star selection. He was relieved of his coaching duties in January 1970, when General Manager Max Williams took over as head coach.

JOHN BEASLEY

1968, 1969 & 1970 ABA ALL-STAR

John Beasley was the biggest surprise for the Dallas Chaparrals in their inaugural season … in his first year, Beasley averaged 19.7 points per game … he made the ABA All-Star Team each of his first three seasons and was named the MVP of the 1969 All-Star Game … he also garnered All-ABA Second Team honors in 1968 and 1969 … Beasley ranks second in Spurs ABA history in games, points, field goals made and field goals attempted … for his career with the Chaparrals, Beasley averaged 17.9 points and 11.0 rebounds while shooting .494 from the field and .828 from the free throw line.

RON BOONE

1968-69 ABA ALL-ROOKIE FIRST TEAM

A major bright spot of the Chaparrals' 1968-69 season was rookie phenom Ron Boone … Boone attracted very little attention during his college career at Idaho State, but that all changed when he got to the pros … Boone finished second to Warren Armstrong of Oakland for Rookie of the Year accolades … in his rookie season, Boone averaged 18.9 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.6 assists while shooting .434 from the field and .812 from the free throw line.

GLEN COMBS

Glen Combs shined along with Boone during his rookie season … in 1968-69, Combs averaged 15.4 points per game while shooting .361 from three-point range … the following year, Combs averaged a team-high 22.2 points in addition to 3.4 rebounds and 4.1 assists … he made one All-Star appearance as a Chaparral in 1970.

CINCINNATUS POWELL

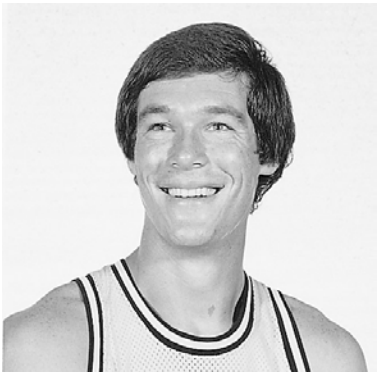
Cincinnatus 'Cincy' Powell averaged 19.3 points, 9.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists, while shooting .476 from the field during his time in Dallas … Powell was named to the 1967-68 All-ABA Second Team … he also earned one trip to the All-Star Game in 1970.



RICH JONES

1973 & 1974 ABA ALL-STAR

For his career with the Chaparrals/Spurs, which spanned six seasons (1969-75), Rich Jones averaged 16.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and 3.1 assists, while shooting .430 from the field and .318 from three-point range … Jones is the Spurs all-time ABA leader in games, points, field goals made and field goals attempted … he also ranks second in free throws made and attempted, rebounds and assists … Jones was a two-time All-Star in 1973 and 1974.

1974 ABA ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

The first big move in Spurs history paid dividends from the start … in November, 1973 the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virgina Squires in exchange for draft picks and cash … Nater appeared in 62 games with San Antonio after playing in 17 games with the Squires during the 1973-74 season … for the season he totaled 79 games, averaging 14.1 points and 12.6 rebounds while shooting .552 from the field … in addition to winning ABA Rookie of the Year honors, Nater was named to the All-ABA Second Team, appeared in the 1974 ABA All-Star Game and led the league in field goal percentage.

GEORGE GERVIN

1974, 1975 & 1976 ABA ALL-STAR

During his ABA years with the Spurs, George Gervin made three consecutive All-Star appearances from 1974-76 … he also was a two-time All-ABA Second Team member for the 1974-75 and 1975-76 seasons … Gervin's best ABA season with the Spurs came in 1974-75 when he averaged 23.4 points and 8.3 rebounds … for his ABA career with the Spurs, which spanned three seasons (1073-76), Gervin averaged 22.2 points, 7.6 rebounds and 2.4 assists, while shooting .484 from the field and .844 from the free throw line.

JAMES SILAS

1976 ALL-ABA FIRST TEAM

James Silas enjoyed the best season of his 10-year career during the 1975-76 season … he appeared in all 84 games, averaging 23.8 points, 5.4 assists, 4.0 rebounds and 1.85 steals in 37.0 minutes per contest … Silas was the first Spur to be named to the All-ABA First Team and also earned a spot on the 1976 ABA All-Star Team.

THE BIG STORIES

THE BEGINNING
February 2, 1967

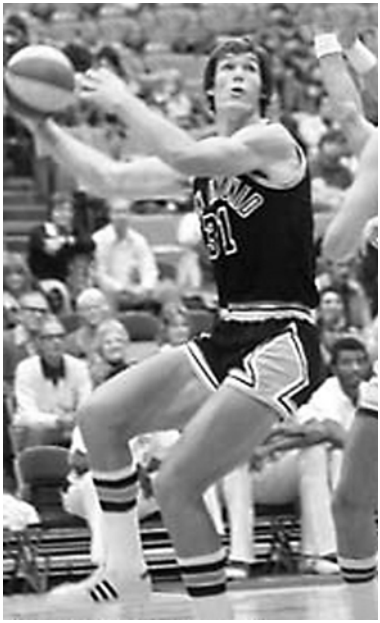
On February 2, 1967, a Dallas ABA franchise is awarded for $30,000 to August Speth, Gary Davidson, John Klug, James Peters … the team is sold prior to the league's first season to a group including Robert S. Folsom, J. Lindsay Embrey, Richard Bruton, Joseph W. Geary, Graham R. E. Koch and Lawrence S. Pollock … Folsom was named President … Max Williams was named General Manager … the team played in Memorial Auditorium and Moody Coliseum … Cliff Hagan ended his one-year retirement to become the team's player-coach … they drafted Pat Riley (who signed with San Diego of the NBA) … they signed John Beasley, Charlie Beasley, Cincy Powell, Maurice McHartley, and Bob Verga.

"DALLAS" BECOMES "TEXAS"
1970-71 Season

For the 1970-71 season, Chaparrals management tried its greatest experiment – regionalization … the name of the team was changed to the "Texas" Chaparrals … while Texas still played most of its games in Dallas, the team also played in Lubbock and Fort Worth … this experiment fizzled in a dramatic way … while the crowds in Dallas remained strong, attendance in Fort Worth and Lubbock steadily declined over the season … the breaking point came on January 5, 1971, when less than 200 fans showed up in Forth Worth to see the Chaps play the Pittsburgh Condors (the crowd was actually announced as 500) … management promptly canceled the last five games scheduled for Fort Worth and switched them to Dallas.

FIRST NBA-ABA EXHIBITION GAME
September 21, 1971

In the summer of 1971, a merger between the NBA and ABA appeared imminent … Basketball Weekly reported that "The American basketball public is clamoring for a merger. So are the NBA and ABA owners, the two commissioners and every college coach. The war is over. The Armistice will be signed soon" … in this short-lived congenial atmosphere, the two leagues agreed to play preseason interleague exhibition games for the first time … even though the merger talks fell apart before the 1971-72 season, the ABA vs. NBA exhibition games stayed alive … the Chaparrals hosted the first NBA vs. ABA game on September 21, 1971 … Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored 32 points to lead the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks past John Beasley and the ABA Dallas Chaparrals, 106-103 … 7,800 fans paid the largest gate in Dallas franchise history to see the game.



CHAPARRALS MOVE SOUTH
Summer of 1973
When the Dallas Chaparrals first moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973, the franchise was actually on a three-year lease … shortly after the 1972-73 season ended a group of San Antonio businessmen - led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Angelo Drossos and Art Burdick negotiated the unique deal … the first ownership group consisted of 35 stockholders … the team struggled to gain interest early said treasurer Maury Holden, "I can remember one night, Pat Tallman (the Spurs PA announcer) said it might be easier to introduce the people in the crowd instead of the starting line-ups." … as the season went on the support grew … during the season the group of 27 investors arranged to purchase the team from the Dallas group and by the end of the season – after the team had acquired Swen Nater and George Gervin – Spurs fever had arrived in San Antonio.

SPURS FIRST GAME
October 10, 1973
In the first game in San Antonio history, the Silver and Black fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena in front of 5,879 fans … the starting lineup that night was Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas … the Conquistadors were coached by NBA legend Wilt Chamberlain … Chamberlain was assisted by Stan Albeck, who would go on to coach the Spurs from 1980-83.

THE ICEMAN COMETH
January 30, 1974
It wasn't easy but it was worth it … the official date is January 30, 1974 … that's when George Gervin was obtained by San Antonio as Virginia sold his rights to the Spurs … but after the trade it took a few weeks before "Iceman" was free and clear to become a Spur … the Squires were in financial trouble and had been unloading players (including Julius Erving and Swen Nater) … so then the ABA – and eventually Virginia – contested the Gervin deal … first Gervin had to hide out in a San Antonio hotel room for about a week … then on February 7 he finally made his Spurs debut (finishing with 12 points in 27 minutes vs. Utah) but only after U.S District Court Judge Adrian Spears granted the Spurs a 10-day restraining order against the Squires and the ABA clearing Gervin to suit up for the Silver and Black … finally by the middle of February all the legal issues were dealt with and Gervin was a Spur … Gervin spent 12 of his 14 professional seasons with the Spurs and on February 5, 1996, was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame.

THE MERGER
June 17, 1976
Thanks to the leadership of Angelo Drossos the Spurs were one of four ABA teams – along with the Denver Nuggets, the Indiana Pacers and the New York Nets – to jump to the NBA as part of a merger between the two leagues … it was a long struggle for Drossos and the Spurs … in January of 1976 he was named to an ABA committee pursuing the merger … then, when the merger occurred, Drossos was forced to find 30 new investors to cover the $5 million NBA entry fee.

NEWS AND NOTES

- The Dallas Chaparrals always hovered near the middle of the ABA pack … around the league, the Chaps were known for the vast wealth of their ownership group … while the Dallas owners had money, they refused to spend it on their basketball team … the Chaps rarely, if ever, signed any of their high draft picks … in fact, the best draft "find" in Dallas franchise history, Ron Boone, was a relatively unknown eighth round pick.

- In the ABA's inaugural season, the Chaps had the fourth best record in the league and finished second in the Western Division … they crushed the Houston Mavericks in the first round of the playoffs, but then easily succumbed to the New Orleans Buccaneers in the Western Division Finals … the chief reason for the team's early success was player-coach Cliff Hagan, the former NBA All-Star with the St. Louis Hawks … Hagan's physical style was perfect for the early ABA, and he averaged 18.2 points per game that first year.

- Things started to change by Dallas' third season though … the team struggled early on as enforcer Cincy Powell suffered both a broken jaw and a sprained ankle … Hagan's coaching style also began to grate on his players and team management … some Dallas players hated playing for Hagan because he was a "screamer" … Chaps management felt that what the team needed was more encouragement, rather than constant yelling and screaming … Hagan was fired in January 1970, and General Manager Max Williams took over the team … the team improved a little after Williams took over (it averaged an impressive 128 points per game), and finished in second place behind Denver … Glen Combs probably was the team's MVP, averaging 22.2 points per game … in the playoffs however, Dallas was upset in the first round by the surprising Los Angeles Stars.

- For the 1970-71 season, the team lacked direction and confidence -- team leader John Beasley had been traded … rookies Rich Jones and Joe Hamilton showed promise, but could not carry the team … most of the season, Texas engaged in a nip and tuck battle with Denver for the last playoff spot in the Western Division … General Manager Max Williams watched his team struggle in last place early in the season before he finally decided to fire himself … he gave up the coaching position to Bill Blakeley, who promptly lost two games in a row for the first time in his 13 year head coaching career … in the middle of the season, the team made a trade which it would live to regret -- it sent Ron Boone and Glen Combs to Utah for a disgruntled Donnie Freeman and a banged-up Wayne Hightower … observers first thought that Texas got the better deal--but soon changed their minds as Boone and Combs became important elements of Utah's 1971 championship team … in fact, after Texas nipped the Denver Rockets in a one-game playoff for the final playoff spot in the Western Division, Boone and Combs led Utah past Texas in four straight games.

- For the next season, the team "returned" to Dallas and played all of its games there … their new young coach was Tom Nissalke, the former assistant coach of the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks … Nissalke got the most out of his players (including the talented Rich Jones and Joe Hamilton) and managed to guide the team to a .500 record and third place in the Western Division … for his efforts, Nissalke won the ABA Coach of the Year award … however, Dallas was once again swept by Utah in four straight games in the first round of the playoffs.

- Strangely, the team declined to hang on to Nissalke … Nissalke promptly found a new head coaching job with the Seattle Supersonics of the NBA … the Chaps' latest coach was Babe "Magnolia Mouth" McCarthy … unfortunately, the team floundered under McCarthy, and the respected coach was fired … the Chaps finished with only 28 wins, two games behind the ABA's new expansion team, the San Diego Conquistadors … for the first time in their existence, the franchise failed to make the playoffs … it was also the last season for the team in Dallas, as the owners decided to lease the team to Angelo Drossos in San Antonio for the 1973-74 season … the team became the San Antonio Spurs, and eventually stayed in that city under the ownership of Drossos.

- In an attempt to get the team back to their winning ways, they brought back Head Coach Tom Nissalke for the 1974-75 season … However, midway through the season, Bob Bass replaced Nissalke when he was named head coach on December 13, 1974 … Bass was credited with instilling a run-and-gun style to the Spurs attack … he also moved George Gervin from forward to guard … Bass would go on to have an illustrious career in San Antonio, serving in a variety of roles: general manager, vice president of basketball operations, assistant to the chairman, head coach and assistant coach during his 20 years with the Spurs … During his 1,617 games in San Antonio, the Spurs posted a 877-740 record … Bass was twice named NBA Executive of the Year (in 1990 with the Spurs and in 1997 with the Charlotte Hornets).

- San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game … a crowd of 10,449 packed the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on Jan. 28, 1975 … the Western squad featured three Spurs – George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas … Willie Nelson sang the National Anthem and Freddie Lewis was the MVP of the game (as MVP he was awarded a horse – Tuff Julie – and a hand-sewn saddle … but rather then try to ship the horse to his home in Arizona he instead took the auction price of $1,950).

- Fans in the Alamo City saw one of the more interesting, albeit one of the last games in ABA history on April 7, 1976 … a leak in the roof at the HemisFair Arena forced the Spurs-Indiana Pacers game to be played under some different rules … because a portion of the court was coned off in the slippery area it was decided there would be no pressing of the ball handler outside of the 3-point lines and there would be no fast break allowed … the game was also played with a running clock on dead balls to make up for the nearly 40-minute delay to get the court "game-ready" … the Spurs ended up winning the game 96-75 … arena officials weren't out of the woods after the game either … with the Spurs set to host the New York Nets in the ABA playoffs two days later, contractors were able to patch the leaks in HemisFair's roof , however they could not guarantee the patches in the event of another rain storm … luckily for everyone involved the weather cooperated and no new "rules" were needed in the playoffs.

1974–75 SEASON NOTES

- The City of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game … a crowd of 10,449 was on hand in the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on 1/28/75 … the Western squad featured three Spurs – George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas.
- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their head coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star … during the regular season he was seventh in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks … Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game … but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the postseason when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard … Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119 … Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season … on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon … in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash … then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz … the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975–76 campaign.

- James Silas – the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season – broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets … the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas … he was the first Spur ever named to the All-ABA First Team … he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game … the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1,905-2,337) from the free throw line during the 1975–76 season … five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line … James Silas led the way with a .872 mark, George Gervin shot .862, Allan Bristow had a .848 mark, Coby Dietrick was .829 and Mike Gale shot an even .800.

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle) ... after starting 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason to claim their first NBA Division Title ... at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22-game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans ... going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title ... Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points ... but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title ... by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points – thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter ... the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

- Point guard James Silas returned to the starting lineup after missing the majority of the previous two seasons due to a knee injury.
- The Spurs started the season with a bang, beating Milwaukee 153-111 in their home opener on 10/14.
- The Spurs beat the Cavaliers 117-101 on the final game of the season to edge out Houston to claim their second consecutive Central Division Title.
- George Gervin led the NBA in scoring for the second straight season, becoming the first guard ever to capture the NBA Scoring Title in back-to-back seasons.
- After beating the Sixers in the Eastern Conference Semifinals, the Spurs and Bullets matched-up in a memorable seven-game series in the Conference Finals ... the Spurs jumped out to a 3-1 series lead ... but Washington then won three straight games to claim the series 4-3.

1979–80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee ... the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle ... but Moore – who appeared in 519 regular season games with the Silver and Black – was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980–81 season.

- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark ... on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as head coach.

- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.

- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs ... he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest ... on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73–74 through '92–93 ... and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference.
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season ... draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs ... after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was re-signed and led the team in assists in his first NBA season ... and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson.
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game ... he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State ... in the Spurs 131-126 win Johnson set a pair of Spurs franchise records – the most blocks in a game, with 13, and the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second.

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas – the last original Spur and team captain – to Cleveland ... Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and is one of just six players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena ... the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league ... George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg ... George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.12 bpg ... and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.6 assists per contest.

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named head coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season ... first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie ... guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84 ... then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight ... Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash ... Marc Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice ... and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg ... this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring ... Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season ... Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix.
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg ... Moore turned in one of the best games of his career vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .513 percent from the field during the 1984–85 season.

1985–86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever ... the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short ... after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985–86 season ... the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest ... he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg ... he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987–88 SEASON NOTES

- The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court ... on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy ... on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 Draft.

- Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and – before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy – the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.

- The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

1989–90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989–90 season ... on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson ... in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice ... and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp ... in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents ... of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment ... in all, nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set what was an NBA record at the time for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88–89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season.

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21 ... on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990–91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season, the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 NBA Draft.
- David Robinson was the top vote-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game ... Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed, the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history on 2/26 with a 102-101 overtime win over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1992–93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4 ... the Tarkanian era didn't last long ... on 12/18 – with the team posting a 9-11 record – Tark was fired ... 24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas ... the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.

- The Spurs also made some changes on the court ... point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice ... other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.

- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.

- The Spurs closed a part of their history book on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals ... the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973.

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season ... Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively ... Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 vs. Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basketball history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang ... in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign, he scored a Spurs franchise record 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24 ... Robinson became just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season ... thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title ... Robinson also made history earlier in the season when he became just the fourth player ever to record a quadruple-double ... Robinson posted his vs. Detroit on 2/17, finishing with 34 points, 10 rebounds, 10 blocks and 10 assists.

1995–96 SEASON NOTES

- The 1996 All-Star Game was held in San Antonio ... the East beat the West 129-118 in front of 36,037 in the Dome ... Michael Jordan – in his first All-Star Game since 1993 – was the MVP, finishing with 20 points in 22 minutes ... for the Western squad David Robinson had 18 points and 11 rebounds in 23 minutes and Sean Elliott finished with 13 points in 22 minutes.

- The Spurs finished the month of March with a perfect 16-0 record, matching the '71–72 Lakers for the best month ever recorded in NBA history ... the Spurs perfect month was part of a franchise-record 17 game winning streak which went from 2/29–4/2.

- Avery Johnson and Vinny Del Negro finished with the best assist-to-turnover ratio among any starting backcourt in the NBA ... AJ and Vinny combined for a 3.74-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio ... Johnson's personal assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.05-to-1 was the best among any starter in the league.

- David Robinson and Chuck Person both hit a pair of major milestones during the season ... on 3/14 vs. the Heat, Person connected on the 1,000th three-pointer of his career, becoming just the fourth player in history to hit the 1,000 mark ... then, on 4/15 at Portland, Robinson became just the 10th player in NBA history to record 2,000 career blocks.

1997–98 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs set an NBA record for the largest single season turnaround, posting a 56-26 mark - a 36 game improvement over their 20-62 record during the 1996-97 season ... the Spurs broke the old NBA record for a single season turnaround of 35 games, a mark set by the Spurs during the 1989–90 season.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed an impressive rookie season, averaging 21.1 points, 11.9 rebounds and 2.51 blocks per game ... he was the NBA Rookie of the Year, after being named the NBA Rookie of the Month all six months ... in addition, he earned a spot on the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- After appearing in just six games during the 1996-97 season due to injuries, David Robinson returned to All-Star form during the 1997–98 campaign ... he appeared in 73 games, averaging 21.6 points, 10.6 rebounds and 2.63 blocks per contest ... Robinson joined Tim Duncan as a member of the 1998 NBA All-Star team ... in addition, he was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- Tim Duncan and David Robinson became just the eighth set of teammates in NBA history to both average 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds ... since 1970 the feat has been accomplished just four times ... in addition to Duncan and Robinson, other 20-point, 10-rebound teammates since that time have been Ralph Sampson and Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston in '84–85), Charles Barkley and Moses Malone (Philadelphia in '85-86) and Alonzo Mourning and Larry Johnson (Charlotte in '92-93).

- The Spurs defeated the Knicks 4-1 in the 1999 Finals to claim the first NBA Championship in the team's 26-year history ... the Spurs rolled through the playoffs with a 15-2 mark, the second highest winning percentage in NBA history ... at one point the Spurs recorded 12 straight wins, setting an NBA record for the most consecutive victories in a single postseason ... Tim Duncan was the Finals MVP, averaging 27.4 points and 14.0 rebounds in 45.8 minutes in the five-game series ... the Spurs became the first former ABA team to advance to the NBA Finals and are just the ninth team in NBA history to win the title in their first appearance in the Finals ... the Spurs clinched their title on June 25 in Madison Square Garden when Avery Johnson hit an 18-foot jumper from the corner with 47.0 seconds left ... the basket gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead and was the final point scored in the game.

- After the NBA lifted its lockout in early January, the league played a shortened 50-game schedule ... after starting the season with a 6-8 record, the Spurs were 31-5 (.861) over their final 36 games to finish with a 37-13 mark, the best record in the NBA ... during their 31-5 run the Spurs were 17-1 in the Alamodome ... in the middle of the run Tim Duncan was named the NBA Player of the Month in March and Gregg Popovich was named the NBA Coach of the Month in April.

- For the second consecutive season the Spurs set an NBA record for the lowest opponent field goal percentage ... for the season opponents shot a mere .402 (1,631-4,061) from the floor vs. the Spurs ... the Spurs broke their own record, which they set during the 1997-98 season, holding opponents to a .411 mark from the field.

- The Spurs started the season with a franchise best 14-3 mark ... the team then struggled through an 11-12 stretch before finishing the season 28-14 ... but, on 4/11 at Sacramento, Tim Duncan suffered a torn left lateral meniscus ... the injury eventually required surgery and forced him to miss the remainder of the regular season and the playoffs ... without Duncan, the Spurs fell to the Suns in four games in the First Round of the 2000 Playoffs in a series that saw Malik Rose and Jerome Kersey also go down with injuries.

- The biggest story of the season was Sean Elliott ... Elliott underwent a kidney transplant on 8/16/99 ... he spent the first half of the season as the Spurs television analyst ... then on 2/1 he was cleared to return to practice and the next day joined his team on the court ... after almost six weeks of practice, he was removed from the injured list on 3/14 ... that night he made NBA history, becoming the first player to return to action after an organ transplant ... Elliott was a surprise starter and finished with 2 points in 12 minutes vs. the Hawks in front of a crowd of 26,708.

- Avery Johnson became the Spurs all-time leader in assists on 12/7 at Indiana, passing Johnny Moore who handed out 3,865 assists in his nine seasons with San Antonio ... Johnson finished the season with 4,237 assists with the Spurs.

- David Robinson also hit several milestones during the 1999–2000 season ... on 12/18 at Denver, he played in his 710th game with the Spurs to pass George Gervin to become the team's all-time NBA leader in games played ... then on 2/18 vs. Houston, he recorded seven steals to become the Spurs all-time leader in steals, passing Alvin Robertson ... also during the season Robinson scored his 17,000th career point (vs. Washington on 12/11) and his 18,000th career point (vs. Sacramento on 4/5).

2000–01 SEASON NOTES

- For the fourth time in franchise history the Spurs compiled the NBA's best overall record during the regular season, posting a 58-24 mark ... San Antonio also had the league's best record in 1994–95 (62-20) and 1995–96 (59-23) and shared the best record with Utah (at 37-13) in the lockout shortened 1998–99 season when the Spurs captured the 1999 NBA Championship.

- On 12/19, thanks to an 86-79 victory over Houston, Gregg Popovich passed Doug Moe to become the Spurs all-time leader in career victories ... Moe posted a 176-135 record in his four seasons as the Spurs head coach.

- After signing with the Spurs as a free agent Derek Anderson made an immediate impact ... he started all 82 games at the shooting guard position, averaging 15.5 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game ... another free agent – Danny Ferry – also played a big role in his first season in San Antonio ... Ferry appeared in 80 games and started 29 games at small forward ... for the season he ranked fifth in the NBA in three-point field goal percentage, shooting .449 (70-156) from downtown.

- For the first time in franchise history the Spurs led the NBA in attendance during the 2000–01 season ... the Spurs drew 913,175 fans for their 41 regular season home games for an average of 22,273 fans per contest.

- Tim Duncan averaged 25.5 points, 12.7 rebounds and 2.48 blocks while shooting .508 from the field and .799 from the line to become the second player in Spurs history to win the NBA's MVP Award (David Robinson was the first capturing the honor in 1994–95) ... Duncan also was named to the All-NBA First Team, the All-Defensive First Team and captured the 2002 IBM Award ... he led the NBA in double-doubles posting 67 in 82 games.

- The Spurs were red-hot after the All-Star break ... following the break the Spurs were 27-7 (.794) which was the best mark in the NBA during that period ... the Spurs 58-24 record was the second best in the NBA and the team captured the Midwest Division Title – the Spurs 12th division title since joining the NBA in 1976–77.

- In his first season with the Spurs guard Steve Smith made an immediate impact ... he led the NBA in three-point field goal percentage hitting .472 (116-246) from downtown ... for the season he appeared in 77 games – with 76 starts – and averaged 11.6 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists ... he was also honored with the 2002 NBA Sportsmanship Award – becoming the third straight Spur to earn the honor (joining Avery Johnson and David Robinson).

- Tony Parker was named to the All-Rookie First Team becoming the first foreign-born guard to earn the honors ... the 28th pick in the 2001 NBA Draft, Parker averaged 9.2 points, 4.3 assists, 2.6 rebounds and 1.16 steals ... the only rookie on the Spurs 2001–02 roster he moved into the starting lineup in the fifth game of the season.

- For the second straight season the Spurs led the NBA in attendance ... the Spurs drew a total of 906,390 fans for their 41 regular season home games for an average of 22,107 per game ... the biggest crowd of the year was 35,052 when the Spurs hosted the Washington Wizards – and Michael Jordan – on 12/4.

- Tim Duncan became the first player since Michael Jordan to win back-to-back regular season MVP honors ... ranked in the top 10 in points (seventh with 23.3), rebounds (third with 12.9), blocks (third with 2.93) and FG percentage (seventh with a .513 mark) ... of course the regular season was just a warm-up for Duncan ... in the postseason he averaged 24.7 points, 15.4 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 3.29 blocks in 42.5 minutes ... Duncan led the Spurs to their second NBA Championship in a five-year span and was named the 2003 Finals MVP (after averaging 24.2 points, 17.0 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 5.33 blocks in the Finals).

- The Spurs Championship served as a perfect ending to a perfect career ... prior to the 2002–03 season David Robinson announced it would be his last ... his 14th and final season with the Spurs was a memorable one ... he finished his NBA career with 20,790 points and 10,497 rebounds making him one of just 14 players in league history in the 20,000 point, 10,000 rebound club ... a 10-time All-Star, Robinson was the 1995 NBA MVP, the 1992 NBA Defensive Player of the Year and the 1990 NBA Rookie of the Year ... he led the league in scoring in 1994, in rebounding in 1991 and in blocked shots in 1992 to join Kareem Abdul-Jabbar as one of two players in NBA history to accomplish the feat.

- Rookie guard Manu Ginobili made an immediate impact and quickly became a fan favorite ... the Argentina native – who the Spurs selected with the 57th pick in the 1999 NBA Draft – joined the team after spending the previous three seasons playing in the Italian League ... he was named to the 2003 All-Rookie Second Team after averaging 7.6 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.0 assists during the 2002–03 campaign.

- The Spurs moved into a new home for the 2002–03 campaign ... although the Spurs and their fans loved both the HemisFair Arena and the Alamodome, the AT&T Center was their first home conceived, designed and built with the Spurs in mind (unlike the HemisFair Arena – which was built for the 1968 World's Fair – and the Dome – which was built by the city of San Antonio as a multi-use sports and entertainment venue) ... in their first season in the AT&T Center the Spurs sold out 21 games, averaging 17,950 fans per game in the 18,797-seat facility.

2003–04 SEASON NOTES

- Coming off the 2003 NBA championship, the Spurs suffered through a slow start, opening the 2003–04 season with a 9-10 record (which put the team in 25th place in the NBA on 12/4) ... but the Spurs didn't panic ... instead – on 12/5 – the team started a 13-game winning streak ... the Spurs then finished the season with an 11-game winning streak ... at the end of the regular season their 57-25 mark was the third best in the NBA (behind only Indiana and Minnesota).

- As usual the Spurs success was based on their efforts on the defensive end ... during the 2003–04 campaign the Spurs held their opponents to 84.3 points per game with a .409 field goal percentage ... both marks set new NBA single-season record opponent lows for a full 82-game schedule (during the 50 game 1998–99 season Spurs opponents shot just .402 from the field) ... during the 2003-04 season the Spurs were 29-1 when holding their opponents to 80 points or less.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed another dominant season ... for the seventh straight year he earned spots on both the All-NBA Team and the All-Defensive Team ... he joined former teammate David Robinson as just the second player in history to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of their first seven seasons ... Duncan ranked eighth in scoring (22.3 ppg), second in rebounds (12.4 rpg) and fourth in blocks (2.68 bpg).

- After sweeping Memphis in the first round the Spurs faced Los Angeles in the second round ... it was the fourth straight year that the Spurs and the Lakers met in the playoffs ... once again it was a classic series ... with the series tied 2-2 the Lakers beat the Spurs 74-73 on 5/13 in a crazy Game 5 in the AT&T Center ... the Lakers took a 72-71 lead with 11 seconds left thanks to a Kobe Bryant jumper ... after a series of timeouts Tim Duncan hit an amazing shot – a 20-foot runner off the dribble with Shaquille O'Neal on him – with less than a second left ... with 0.4 seconds left the Lakers inbounded the ball – across from the Spurs bench – and Derek Fisher caught, turned and launched a fade-away jumper that gave Los Angeles the win ... two nights later the Lakers beat the Spurs in Game 6 to end San Antonio's bid to win back-to-back

- The Spurs captured their third NBA championship in a thrilling seven-game Finals victory over the Detroit Pistons ... Tim Duncan was named Finals MVP for the third time in his career after averaging 20.6 points and 14.1 rebounds in 40.7 minutes in the seven games ... but he had plenty of help ... Manu Ginobili averaged 18.7 points, 5.9 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.29 steals ... Bruce Bowen played his trademark defense (he was second on the team in minutes averaging 38.7 minutes per game in the Finals) ... then there was Robert Horry who had one of the all-time great games in Finals history ... in Game 5 at Detroit on 6/19 he finished with 21 points (scoring all of his points in the final 17:01 of the game) ... his biggest shot of the night was a 25-foot three-pointer with 5.8 seconds left that gave the Spurs a 96–95 overtime win and a 3-2 series lead.

- Tim Duncan and Bruce Bowen were both named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team ... it marked the first time that two teammates earned first team honors since the 1997–98 season when both Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen were named to the 1998 All-Defensive First Team.

- Manu Ginobili joined Tim Duncan at the 2005 All-Star Game in Denver ... it was the 10th time in franchise history that two Spurs players were named All-Stars in the same season.

- The Spurs made NBA history in April becoming the first team to ever win back-to-back double-overtime games ... the Spurs posted a 125-124 win at the Clippers on 4/9 before heading north and beating the Warriors 136-134 on 4/10 ... making the feat even more impressive ... the Spurs were without Tim Duncan and Devin Brown vs. the Clippers and then were forced to play without Duncan, Brown, Manu Ginobili and Rasho Nesterovic against the Warriors.

- The Spurs enjoyed their best home record in franchise history finishing with a 38-3 mark in the AT&T Center.

- The Spurs set the franchise record for most wins in a season finishing with a 63-19 mark ... it was the third time that the Spurs hit the 60-win plateau ... the 1994–95 team posted a 62-20 record while the 2002–03 Spurs squad went 60-22.

- Two-time All-Star Michael Finley signed with the Spurs on 9/2/05 after spending his previous nine seasons with the Dallas Mavericks ... in his first season in San Antonio, Finley averaged 10.1 points in 26.5 minutes in 77 games.

- Tony Parker enjoyed a break-out season, averaging 18.9 points, 5.8 assists and 3.3 rebounds ... he led the team in both scoring and assists ... he is the first – and only – point guard to lead the Spurs in scoring ... Parker snapped a string of seven straight seasons in which Tim Duncan had led the team in scoring ... Parker ranked third in the NBA in FG percentage with a .548 mark from the field (becoming the first point guard to rank in the top-three in FG percentage since Butch Beard in the 1973–74 season) ... Parker became the ninth Spur to appear in the NBA All-Star Game (finishing with 8 points in 20 minutes in the 2006 All-Star Game).

- Despite being hobbled all season with plantar fasciitis in his right foot Tim Duncan was named to both the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team ... by earning the honors he extended his NBA record becoming the first player to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of his first nine seasons (David Robinson is second on the list being named to both teams in each of his first seven seasons).

- By winning the 2007 NBA Championship the Spurs became just the fifth franchise to claim four-or-more titles ... the Celtics lead the way with 17 NBA Championships, followed by the Lakers with 14, the Bulls with six and the Sixers with four.

- The Spurs ended the 2006–07 season on a roll, finishing with a 25-6 mark in the final 31 games of the season ... the team enjoyed a 13-game winning streak from 2/13 to 3/13 (matching the third longest winning streak in franchise history).

- Tim Duncan and Michael Finley both joined the NBA's 15,000 point club during the 2006–07 campaign ... Duncan became the 99th player in NBA history to hit the 15,000 point mark at Seattle on 11/26 ... Finley joined the exclusive club at Minnesota on 1/8.

- Tim Duncan was named to both the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive First Team ... by earning the honors he extended his NBA record becoming the first player to be named to both an All-NBA Team and an All-Defensive Team in each of his first 10 seasons (David Robinson is second on the list being named to both teams in each of his first seven seasons).

- The Spurs celebrated their rich history during the 2007–08 season as the team played its 35th season in San Antonio ... the Spurs played their first ABA regular season game against the San Diego Conquistadors at the HemisFair Arena on 10/10/73 ... after spending their first three years in the ABA the Spurs joined the NBA in the summer of 1976 when the two leagues merged ... during their 32 NBA seasons the Spurs have made winning a habit posting the second-highest overall winning percentage in NBA history.

- Bruce Bowen hit a milestone on 3/12/08 at New Orleans, playing and starting in his 500th consecutive game ... the streak ended when Bowen missed the 3/14 contest at Detroit due to an NBA suspension ... Bowen is by far the Silver and Black's franchise leader for consecutive games played and started ... his streak lasted for seven seasons and the Spurs have won three NBA championships since his first missed game on 2/26/02 vs. Phoenix.

- Bruce Bowen and Tim Duncan were both selected to the 2008 NBA All-Defensive First Team ... it marked the third time that both Bowen and Duncan were named to the All-Defensive First Team (2005, 2007 and 2008) ... since the All-Defensive Teams were introduced in 1968-69 they are just the fourth set of teammates to be named to three-or-more first teams in the same season.

- With a 99-84 victory vs. Minnesota on 3/28/08 the Spurs hit the 50 win mark for the ninth straight season ... the Spurs joined the Lakers and the Celtics as the only teams in NBA history to accomplish the feat of winning 50-plus games in nine-or-more consecutive seasons.

- Manu Ginobili became the first Spurs player to win the NBA's Sixth Man of the Year award ... a sixth man in 51-of-74 games played this season, Ginobili led the Spurs in scoring with a career-high average of 19.5 points to go along with 4.8 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 1.47 steals ... he was also the only player in the NBA to average at least 17 points in under 32.0 minutes per game ... Ginobili is first Sixth Man Award winner to lead his team in scoring since Ricky Pierce averaged 23.0 points for the Milwaukee Bucks during the 1989–90 season.

- With a 99-89 victory at Oklahoma City on 4/7/09, the Spurs became just the third team in NBA history to record 50-plus wins in 10 straight seasons ... Boston and the Los Angeles Lakers are the only other franchises to record such a streak.
- On 3/16/09 at Oklahoma City, Gregg Popovich became just the 24th head coach in NBA history to have coached in 1,000 games ... he is the third winningest coach at the 1,000 game mark after only Phil Jackson and Pat Riley.
- Tony Parker became the first player in Spurs history to record back-to-back 30+ points and 10+ assists games when he did it in back-to-back games vs. Golden State and at Atlanta ... he recorded 30 points and 10 assists vs. Golden State on 3/24 and posted 42 points and 10 assists at Atlanta on 3/25.
- Tony Parker finished with 55 points at Minnesota on 11/5/08 adding his name to the Spurs record books ... Parker tied George Gervin for third place among all-time single game scoring totals while surpassing Terry Cummings (52) and Larry Kenon (51) ... he became just the sixth Spur to score 50-or-more in a game ... it was the first 50-plus point game for the Silver and Black since Tim Duncan had 53 points on 12/26/01 at home vs. Dallas.
- Tim Duncan was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team ... he became the only player in NBA history to earn both All-NBA and All-Defensive honors in each of his first 12 seasons.

2010-11 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs finished the season 61-21, which is the third-best record in franchise history. It trails the 2005-06 team, who finished a franchise-best 63-19, and the 1994-95 Spurs, who finished 62-20. The Spurs reached 20, 30, 40 and 50 wins faster than any previous team in franchise history.
- The Spurs won 22 games in a row at home from Dec. 3 vs. Minnesota through March 6 vs. L.A. Lakers. The streak marked the longest single-season home winning streak in franchise history, breaking the previous record of 20 games in the 1989-90 season from Nov. 11 to Feb. 6.
- The Spurs shot .397 from three-point range, which ranked first in the NBA and was the second-best percentage in franchise history. Matt Bonner led the NBA in three-point field goal percentage (.440, 135-307), Richard Jefferson finished the season ranked tied for fourth (.457, 105-230), and Gary Neal led all rookies in three-point shooting (.419, 419-308). Each shot over .400 from three-point territory with at least 150 attempts. This marked the third time in franchise history that the Spurs had three players in the same season shoot at least .400 from three-point range with at least 150 attempts
- With a victory over Sacramento on April 6, Head Coach Gregg Popovich surpassed Red Auerbach to move into second place on the all-time wins with one team list. Popovich's 797 career wins, all with San Antonio, place him on a list that includes Red Auerbach, Jerry Sloan and Red Holzman.

2011-12 SEASON NOTES

- With a 107-101 victory over the Golden State Warriors on April 26, the Spurs won their 50th game of the season for the 13th consecutive year (1999-00 to present) surpassing the L.A. Lakers (1979-80 to 1990-91) for the longest streak in NBA history. During that span the Spurs won three NBA championships and eight division titles.

- The Spurs finished the regular season 28-5 (.848) at the AT&T Center, which tied the Miami Heat for the best home record in the NBA season. Only the 2004-05 (38-3, .927) and the 2010-11 (36-5, .878) Spurs teams finished with a better home winning percentage since joining the NBA in 1976-77.

- With the win over Phoenix on 4/14, the Spurs clinched the Southwest Division title. Since joining the NBA in 1976-77 the Spurs have won 18 division titles, which ties the L.A. Lakers for the most division titles in that time period. Since Tim Duncan joined the Spurs in 1997, the Spurs have posted an NBA-best nine division titles.

- Manu Ginobili became just the fifth Spur to reach 10,000 points after scoring nine points vs. L.A. Lakers on 4/11. The Spurs "Big Three" are the only active trio to play on the same team and score over 10,000 points with the same franchise in the NBA and just the fourth threesome in NBA history each to record 10,000-or-more points while teammates. (Elias) Here's a closer look at the Spurs 10,000 point club and threesomes to records 10,000-or-more points as teammates:

2013-14 SEASON NOTES

• The Spurs finished with the best overall record in the NBA and clinched the number one overall seed for the 2014 NBA Playoffs en route to winning the 2014 NBA Championship. Kawhi Leonard became the third-youngest NBA Finals MVP in league history and San Antonio captured its fifth title in franchise history.

• The Silver and Black extended their NBA-record streak of 50-win seasons to 15. Additionally, the Spurs eclipsed the 55-win mark for the 17th time in franchise history, trailing only the Los Angeles Lakers (20) for such seasons in NBA history. Finally, the Spurs ascended past the 60-win mark for the fourth time since Tim Duncan joined the Spurs in 1997-98, most in the NBA over that span. With a 32-9 record in home games and an NBA-best and franchise-best 30-11 ledger in away games, the San Antonio Spurs were the only team in the NBA to finish above .750 in both home and road games.

• San Antonio won 19 consecutive games (2/26 – 4/2), marking its longest win streak in franchise history and is tied for the fifth longest streak in NBA history. San Antonio joins only six other teams in NBA history to have a winning streak of 19 games or more. The 16.8 point differential average the Spurs posted during the streak was the second-highest point differential average of any streak 19 games or more in NBA history.

• The Spurs finished with an NBA-best 30-11 road record (five more than second most road wins), marking the best away ledger in franchise history and only the 13th time in NBA history a team has won 30 road games in a season.

• No player on the San Antonio Spurs roster averaged 30 minutes (Tony Parker 29.4 minutes = highest), marking the first time in league history no player on an NBA team averaged at least 30 minutes in a season. Additionally, the Spurs deployed 30 different lineups, second only to the Los Angeles Lakers, while featuring 17 different starters.

• San Antonio's reserves averaged an NBA-best 45.1 points per game, marking the Spurs' highest bench average in franchise history. Additionally, the 45.1 average is the fourth highest average in NBA history (NBA started tracking the stat in 1970-71), while also totaling the fourth-most points by a bench in a single season with 3,698. The Spurs bench also led the NBA in assists (11.1) and point differential (+3.8).

• The Silver and Black finished the season ranked first in assists (25.2) and in three-point field goal percentage (.397), second in field goal percentage (.486) and fourth in free throw percentage (.785).

2014-15 SEASON NOTES

• The Spurs finished the 2014-15 season with a 55-27 record, extending their NBA-record streak of 50-win seasons to 16. Additionally, the Spurs eclipsed the 55-win mark for the 18th time in franchise history, trailing only the Los Angeles Lakers (20) for the most 55-win seasons in NBA history.

• The trio of Tim Duncan, Tony Parker and Manu Ginobili set a new record for most career games played by a trio in NBA history, playing their 730th contest together at Oklahoma City on 4/7/15 and passing the Boston Celtics group of Larry Bird, Robert Parish and Kevin McHale. The Spurs "Big Three" have been teammates since the 2002-03 season and have played in 734 total games together, while their 539 career wins together stands as second-most in league history.

• Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich became the ninth coach in NBA history to record 1,000 career wins. Popovich is now the second coach all-time to record 1,000 wins with one franchise (Jerry Sloan), and the third-fastest coach to 1,000 victories (Phil Jackson, Pat Riley). Popovich also became the fifth coach in history to record 1,000 wins and an NBA Championship, and the third to capture 1,000 wins and five titles.

• The Spurs finished the regular season by winning 21 of the final 24 games overall, as well as winning 21 of their final 23 home games. The Silver and Black went on a season-high 11-game winning streak before dropping their final game at New Orleans on 4/15. San Antonio finished 18-4 after returning from their annual 'Rodeo Road Trip' that included nine-straight road games (2/8 to 2/28) with 8,084 total miles of travel.

• The Silver and Black were one of only two teams in the NBA that ranked in the Top 10 in the league in both offensive and defensive points-per-game (Atlanta). San Antonio ranked seventh in points-per-game (103.2), while they were third in opposing point-per-game (97.0). The Spurs held their opponents under 100 PPG for an NBA-record 20th straight season.

• With a final record of 67-15, the Spurs produced their most wins in a season, passing the 2005-06 Spurs who finished 63-19. San Antonio became just the 12th team in NBA history to win 67+ games in a season and tied for the seventh best season ever. The Silver and Black finished with the second best overall record in the NBA, a franchise-best 40-1 at home and registered victories in 64 of their final 77 games.

• The Spurs set an NBA record by becoming the first team in league history to start a season 38-0 at home, beating New Orleans on 3/30. The Silver and Black reached 39 straight wins to start and finished 40-1 tying the 1985-86 Boston Celtics for most home wins in a single-season in NBA history. Overall, San Antonio won a franchise-best 48 straight regular season games at home dating back to last season. The 48-game win streak ranks San Antonio second on the all-time longest home winning streaks in NBA history. The Spurs trailed for only 23 minutes and 13 seconds in 492 minutes played in fourth quarters at home this season.

• The Spurs finished the regular season with the league's top net efficiency rating this season (11.8). San Antonio's defense allowed a league-low 96.6 points per 100 possessions, while also finishing with the third-best offensive rating of 108.4 points scored per 100 possessions.

• The "Big Three" of Tim Duncan, Manu Ginobili and Tony Parker became the all-time winningest trio in NBA history when they recorded their 541st victory together with the Spurs' 95-87 win against the Boston Celtics on 11/1/15. The trio set a new record for most games played by a trio in NBA history by playing their 730th career game together at Oklahoma City on 4/7/15. The Spurs "Big Three" were teammates from 2002-16.

• Tim Duncan became just the third player in NBA history to record 1,000 regular season wins when the Spurs defeated Utah on 4/5/16 in Salt Lake City. Duncan joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Robert Parish as the only players on the list. Earning his 1,000th win in his 1,389th contest made Duncan the fastest player ever in NBA history to win 1,000 games. Duncan also passed John Stockton as the NBA leader in most wins with one team when the Spurs defeated the New York Knicks 94-84 at Madison Square Garden on 11/2/15. The win marked No. 954 for Duncan with the Silver and Black.

• Finishing with a final record of 61-21, the Spurs won 60+ games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history. The 61 wins were the fourth-most ever recorded by the Silver & Black in a single season. Gregg Popovich became one of just three all-time NBA coaches with at least six 60-win seasons.

• On 2/13/17 in Indiana, the Spurs clinched their 42nd win of the 2016-17 season to secure their 20th winning season in a row, eclipsing the NBA record held by the Utah Jazz after their 19-year run from 1985-2004.

• San Antonio earned a 30-11 road record in 2016-17, tying the most victories the Spurs have ever recorded on the road in a single season in franchise history. The 30 wins equaled the fifth-best road mark in NBA league history.

• The Spurs had a knack for coming back throughout the 2016-17 campaign, posting a 22-12 record when trailing at the half. The 22 come-from-behind wins at the break marked the second-most recorded in NBA history for a single season, falling one shy of the 1983-84 Philadelphia 76ers, who had 23 such victories.

• Gregg Popovich captured career win number 1,128 in a victory over the Denver Nuggets on 2/4/17, surpassing former Utah Jazz head coach Jerry Sloan for the most wins with a single franchise in NBA history. Earlier in the season on 11/21/16, Popovich won his 1,100th career game, becoming the second-fastest coach in league history to reach the milestone behind Phil Jackson. Popovich finished the season with 1,150 wins.

• On the final night of the NBA season, forward-center Pau Gasol picked up his 20,000th career point to join Dirk Nowitzki as the only European players to reach 20,000 career points. Gasol is one of only four players in NBA history to reach 20,000 points, 10,000 rebounds, 3,500 assists and 1,500 blocks during his career along with Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Kevin Garnett and Tim Duncan.

2017-18 SEASON NOTES

• San Antonio tied with Utah to lead the league in fewest opponent points allowed per game. On average, the Silver and Black held their opponents to 99.8 points per game and held over half of their opponents to under 100 points (42 of 82). The Spurs made it 23-straight seasons allowing fewer than 100.0 points, which is the longest run in NBA history.

• With San Antonio's 100-91 win over the New York Knicks on 1/2/18, Spurs head coach Gregg Popovich collected his 1,176th win to pass George Karl for fifth place on the NBA all-time wins list. He holds the most wins among all active NBA coaches.

• Tony Parker and Gregg Popovich amassed the second most wins together in NBA history (862), trailing only the 1,001 wins that Popovich recorded with Tim Duncan. Tony Parker and Manu Ginobili finished out their 16 NBA seasons as teammates with the third-most wins together, 679, of all player duos in NBA history. Parker collected 733 wins with Tim Duncan, which ranks second all time behind John Stockton and Karl Malone, who totaled 906 for the Utah Jazz.

• The Spurs win vs. Charlotte on 11/3/17 marked Manu Ginobili's 1,000th career game and 728th career win, making him the winningest player through 1,000 games in NBA history. He also became the first player from South America to play 1,000 NBA games, the second 2nd round draft pick to play 1,000 NBA games with one team, the 10th player to ever play 1,000 games and 200 playoff games, and the third player to play 1,000 games with the Spurs, along with Tim Duncan and Tony Parker.

• LaMarcus Aldridge led the Spurs in scoring 59 times during in 2017-18. He is just the fifth Spur in franchise history to lead the team in scoring at least 50 times in a single season along with Kawhi Leonard, Tim Duncan, David Robinson and George Gervin. He scored in double figures in 73-of-75 games in which he saw the court. Aldridge has scored in double figures in 783 games in his career. There are only three players with more double-digit scoring games since Aldridge entered the NBA in 2006: LeBron James, Dirk Nowitzki, Carmelo Anthony. He finished with the same amount of 20+ point games during the 2017-18 season (in 73 games) that he had from 2015-17 (in 146 games).
